HARD-HITTING TALK

Like he does in his national columns and books, Mark brings hard-hitting talk about the right to bear arms for self-defense to the national airwaves. His one-of-a-kind program is laser-focused on our American birthright to keep and bear arms. Mark challenges anti-gun rhetoric and attacks against gun owners with no-nonsense, unwavering support for our constitutional right to defend ourselves. An award-winning activist, speaker, and host, Mark tells the truth that the mainstream media simply ignore.
