Larry O'Connor is a nationally recognized radio host, journalist, and Editor at Townhall Media, where he shapes one of the largest conservative digital news platforms in the country.

He hosts O'Connor & Company on WMAL 105.9 FM, a top-rated Washington, D.C. morning show closely followed by lawmakers, White House officials, and national media. Now, his program expands nationwide on the Salem Radio Network and Salem News Channel, reaching audiences across the country. He also hosts the daily YouTube show LARRY, streaming live each weekday at noon ET.

Prior to joining Townhall, O'Connor's writing appeared across a wide range of influential outlets, including HotAir, The Federalist, Washington Free Beacon, and Washington Times.

He was also part of the early wave of digital-first political media via Breitbart News's original platforms such as Big Hollywood, Big Government, and BreitbartTV.

In addition to his radio and digital work, O'Connor is a frequent television commentator, appearing regularly on Fox News and Newsmax, and has regularly guest hosted for nationally syndicated programs including those of Mark Levin, Dennis Miller, and Hugh Hewitt.

Larry is married to journalist Meredith Dake-O'Connor and they have four children.
